CORAM: R.M.S.KHANDEPARKAR, J

DATED: 21ST OCTOBER, 2004.

P.C.

. Heard. In the course of argument, the learned advocates for both the parties, by consent, submitted that the impugned orders in all the above petitions be quashed and set aside and the respondents be given liberty to move an appropriate application in the appropriate matters before the Labour Court in order to safeguard the interest of the workmen. In view of the said submission, it is not necessary to deal with the various contentions sought to be raised by the petitioners in all the above petitions. Suffice to observe that by consent the impugned orders in all the aforesaid petitions are hereby quashed and set aside. The respondents are at liberty to move appropriate applications in the appropriate matters before the Labour Court and if such applications are filed, the same shall be dealt with by the Labour Court in accordance with the provisions of law, after hearing the parties. While quashing and setting aside the impugned orders, the petitions are disposed of with the aforesaid liberty. No order as to costs.
